

The HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF AVON PARK

and the

Heartland Cultural Alliance

are partnering with the Hotel Jacaranda to present :

Rain: A History for Stormy Times

SPEAKER: Environmental Author and Journalist

Cynthia Barnett
Environmental Author and Journalist

Florida Humanities
Speakers' Bureau

A natural and cultural tour of RAIN, from the torrents that filled the oceans four billion years ago to the modern story of climate change. A wellspring of life, rain also has a place in our souls. Too much and not enough, rain is an experience we share.

Its history has much to tell us about coming together to live more ethically with water.

WHERE:

Avon Park Community Center

WHEN:

Sunday, August 27 at 3 pm

Admission is

FREE

A book signing will follow the talk.
